TEENS @ THE LIBRARY

Paint Party

Thursday, March 2, 7pm

Artist Celicia Cargill will lead you step-by-step to create your own blossom tree landscape painting on canvas. This class is for artists of all levels. You must register as space is limited.

AnySoldier Volunteer Program

Saturday, March 4, 11am

Send good wishes and help organize donations into boxes to bring to the Post Office. Any donations willingly accepted.

Babysitting and First Aid Workshop

Thursday, March 9, 6:45 - 8:45pm

Become a skilled babysitter. Learn to feed, diaper and care for children from two registered nurse instructors. Please bring a doll or stuffed animal to learn diapering. Certificates will be presented to all attendees.

Take a Practice Test with Curvebreakers

Saturday, March 25, 1-4pm

Choose to take either the SAT, ACT or PSAT exam. It will be timed and proctored. Your test will be returned and graded, with analysis of the results. A $5 registration fee is required which will be refunded when you come to take the exam. Registration and choice of exam is a must!

William de Kooning Layering and Paint Project

Thursday, March 30, 6:30 - 8:30pm

Artists from Long Island Children's Museum will teach you the paint techniques of artist William de Kooning to make an original work of art. Your artwork will be exhibited at the Long Island Children's Museum. You must register as space is limited. All costs and materials for this program are provided through a generous grant from the William de Kooning Foundation.

Poetry on the Move

Thursday, April 6, 7pm

Please join Karen De Mauro who will lead you on a fun interactive story journey. She will use hip-hop lyrics, haiku and favorite poems to explore images, movement and rhythms in our most popular program.
