Superintendent's Report

| |
|---|
| Had a luncheon with about 12 students and discussed what best served them while they went through their high school years. A suggestion that the students had was for teachers to stop sugar coating everything just tell them what they want, they can handle it and give them the right direction. The students had other suggestions and Ms. Rianna will be forwarded that list to the board of education. |
| The Council of PTA's co-Presidents present the board of education with a gift for their commitment and dedication to our children |
| Cassie Shannon made a thorough presentation common core mathematics |
| Mr. Hudson did a presentation on the new high school course guide |
| Ms. Rianna read a draft of a resolution on standardized testing that the district is considering in pursuing |
